SAGE AND SULPHUR

Made Her Look Twenty Years Younger

COUNTY OF MONROE | ... Nancy A. Herrsck, being duly sworn, deposes and says: When I was a girl I had a head of heavy, long, dark brown hair which was the sewy of my friends and which attracted the attestion and remarks of strangers, but as I grew older, it commenced to come out. When my hair was quite thin and gray, I was in duced by many good reports I had heard of Wreth's Sage and Sulphur to try a bottle; and you can imagine my satisfaction when I found my hair was fast counting back to its satural condition. I continued to use Sage and Sulphur until my hair was as heavy, dark and smooth as when I was a girl of nixteen. It is now four years since I began using Sage and Sulphur and my hair was an heavy, dark and smooth as when I was a girl of nixteen. It is now four years since I began using Sage and Sulphur and my hair in m splendid condition.

SCREAMS OF GIRL ARE HEARD

An attempt to burglarize the Iowa rooming house in broad daylight was frustrated this morning by the daughter of Mrs. Margaret Arbon, the pro-prietress, who swoke to find the thief in her room. Late this afternoon a arrested by the police and deputy sheriffs, near the river, after a strug-

The Arbon girl had worked late ast night and was sleeping at a late hour this morning, when a noise in her room caused her to awake Standing at her bed was a man of rough appearance. Before she could utter a sound to bring assistance the in-truder seized her by the throat and forced her head down among the nillows where her cries were stifled. Be-fore she was rendered unconscious the hold upon her throat was released, but she was warned that if she made any outery she would be killed. With this threat the man left the room and disopenred down the front stairs.

The city and county officers were at once notified and a man-hunt was instituted. The burglar had made good his escape, but had taken nothing with him and it is believed that the girl's room was the first one he had entered. An hour after the attempted obbery a suspect was arrested, by e was able to prove an allbi and was This afternoon a man giving the name of Robert Crossland was arrested on the river. Crossland had a fishng tackle with him and when ap-roached by the officers apeared to be fishing. He resisted arrest and druggled with the officers, pulling them with him into the water. A which is supposed to belong to Crossand sprang upon Walt Willia patrol wagon driver, and inflicted an igly bite in his leg.
